REQUEST FOR FUNDING FROM THE ST. MICHAELS TOURISM BOARD

The St. Michaels Tourism Board (the Board) is tasked to promote our destination through direct advertising. In addition, advertising funds are disbursed in cooperation with the Talbot County Office of Tourism (TCOT) to permit the TCOT to take full advantage of any matching funds that may be available to it through the State of Maryland or other sources that may not otherwise be available.

In order to consider your organization's request for tourism promotion, we would ask that you please complete an Application for Event Funding and forward it to Deborah A. Renshaw, Codes Enforcement Officer, Town of St. Michaels, 300 Mill Street, P.O. Box 206, St. Michaels, Maryland 21663. The Board meets the second Tuesday of each month and upon receipt of the completed form and supporting document, your request will be placed on the agenda for discussion. Please be advised that all applications must be submitted at least 7 business days prior to the Board's meeting.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Town Office at 410-745-9535.
